May 2019

Dear Parents/Guardians:

The 2018-2019 school year is rapidly coming to a close. As we approach the June testing period, please find enclosed four important documents:

- June 2019 Regents Examination Calendar
- Regents Examination Bus Schedule
- End of Year Procedures and Behavioral Expectations
- “Regents Review Day” Schedule (Monday, June 17th)

In addition, please familiarize yourself with the information provided below:

Please Note:

There will be a special statewide administration of the Global History & Geography (New Framework Exam) on Monday, June 3rd (8:00 am). Consequently, only students taking that exam are to report to Bellport High School on that day. School will be closed for all other students; there will be no regularly scheduled classes on that day. All students should return to school on Tuesday, June 4th.

Students taking the Global History & Geography (New Framework) should follow the enclosed Regents Exam bus schedule.

Testing Information:

- In class final examinations will take place from Monday, June 10th through Friday, June 14th, 2019. See enclosed Exam Schedule Calendar.

- Regents Exams are scheduled on Monday, June 3rd (Global History ONLY) and Tuesday, June 18th through Tuesday, June 25th, 2019 for all other Regents Exams (see enclosed Exam Schedule Calendar).
➢ Please bring a pen and #2 pencils to all examinations.

➢ Please bring calculators to all appropriate examinations.

➢ There will be LIMITED and RESTRICTED access into the building through the Main Entrance during the Regents Testing period (June 3rd and June 18th - June 25th, 2018). Upon arrival, students are to report directly to their examination or review session.

➢ Backpacks, large handbags, gym bags, musical instruments and all such items are not permitted on school grounds during the testing period. If a student enters the building with any of these items, the items will be collected and stored at the student’s own risk. Students are encouraged to leave all electronic devices, including cell phones, home. If a student uses any such device or related communications technology during the administration of any examination (local and Regents), the student risks having their test invalidated with no score calculated.

Please Note: THERE WILL BE NO REGULARLY SCHEDULED CLASSES ON MONDAY, JUNE 17th. This will be a dedicated Regents Review Day (please see the enclosed document for the day’s review schedule and busing information).

In addition, there are no regularly scheduled classes during the Regents testing period (June 3rd and June 18th through June 25th, 2019). Students should only report to school when they have a scheduled exam or review session.

Transportation Information:

➢ Transportation will be provided during testing, including the special administration of the Global History & Geography (New Framework Exam) on Monday, June 3rd. Please consult the enclosed Bus Schedule and Bus Routes information.

Questions or Concerns:

Should you have any questions regarding your child’s testing schedule and / or graduation requirements, please contact the Counseling Center at 730-1608 / 730-1607.

Best of luck to all students during the examination / testing period!

Sincerely,

Timothy Hogan
Principal
