

BELLPORT HIGH SCHOOL SOUTH COUNTRY CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP)

2010-11

What is the CEP?

- Our Plan For Restructuring Certain Components of Bellport High School.
- Why Are We Restructuring?
 - We Have Not Made Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) As Identified By The State For All Students.

What Steps Did We Take?

- Created an in house Leadership Team
- Hired a state approved math consultant
- Worked with Joint Intervention Team (JIT) from New York State Education Department (NYSED)
- Identified Root Causes
- Identified Restructuring Strategies
- Created An Action Plan

Building Level Initiatives And Responsibilities

- Accurately identify all students in each cohort who are in jeopardy failing
- Create an effective AIS structure, identify data to use for evaluation
- Utilize appropriate curriculum for all courses and levels
- Continue to develop the Inclusion model
- Ensure formative assessments are being utilized
- Create clear core choices for 9th and 10th grade students
- Raise accountability levels- administration to faculty, faculty to administration
- On-site professional development for new teachers
- Hire special education teachers certified in core subject areas
- Hold teachers accountable for using data to drive their instruction
- Raise faculty and student expectations for student performance

District Support Plan

- Additional Resources Provided By The District:
 - Department Chairs
 - Additional Funding To Provided Support Programs
 - After school differentiated enrichment programs in math and ELA
 - Leadership Training
 - Focused Professional Development
 - Adult E.S.L. classes
 - Improved parent/guardian communication
 - Grade Book
 - Parent Portal
 - Connect Ed
 - E-blasts

Strategies Implemented At B.H.S.

- Nine period day
- Chairpersons for all core subject areas
- AIS pilot in Math
- Preliminary gathering of curriculum: scope and sequence for all course work
- Improved inclusion model
- Increased administrative observation and analysis of classroom instruction
- Dissemination, to staff, of specific and general data with the objective of improving instruction and student performance

BELLPORT HIGH SCHOOL SOUTH COUNTRY CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP)

2010-11

Stanley G. Pelech II
Assistant Superintendent For Educational Services
February 2, 2011