

BELLPORT HIGH SCHOOL

ESSAYIST CLASS OF 2010

Ian Lundstrom, son of Clare and Scott Lundstrom of East Patchogue is Bellport High School's Essayist with a 4.18 GPA and SAT score of 1700. Ian has taken several Advanced Placement classes including Chemistry. He is a member in good standing with the National Senior Honor Society and the Science, Tri M Music and French Honor Societies. He is also a member of the Students for Environmental Quality Club. Ian, an avid violinist performs with the Bellport High School Chamber Orchestra and is principle with the Concert Orchestra. He has participated in the 2010 Long Island String Festival, NYSSMA since 2006 and performed with the Daedalus Quartet. Ian has volunteered his musical services for the Bellport Garden Club, South Country School District Health Fair, and the South Bay Strings Program. He participated in the Open Space Stewardship Program at Brookhaven National Laboratory. Summer plans include teaching sailing to the youth in our community through the Bellport Bay Sailing Foundation. The Essayist for the Bellport High School Class of 2010 will be attending Stony Brook University majoring in Engineering.